Now Ready and Selling Well.

A Comprehensive and Authoritative Work of Current Importance.

China and the Allies

By A. HENRY SAVAGE LANDOR.

A Notable Work in Two Volumes.

TO see this work is to believe in its success. It is impressive in its very weight and appearance; its gorgeous cover of Chinese yellow, black, green, blue and gold (Mr. Landor's own design) inevitably takes the eye; it is printed on very heavy coated paper and it has, in its two volumes, 269 illustrations, 21 of them in color and tint.

Opened anywhere it LOOKS INTERESTING. What is more to the point, it IS INTERESTING; few can open at random and read a page without wanting to read more.

It is therefore a work that WILL HELP TO SELL ITSELF.

Beside all this, it is a work of substantial merit and authority. It is sure to be quoted extensively. Its comments on the American soldier and the missionary would alone make it one of the much-talked-about books of the year. But you must see it yourself to appreciate it.

2 volumes, 8vo, $7.50, net.

"Will this prove another 'Rudder Grange'?"

The Abandoned Farmer

A BOOK OF RARE HUMOR.

By SYDNEY HERMAN PRESTON,

Author of "The Green Pigs," Etc.

A NEW book in the field which Mr. Stockton explored in "Rudder Grange," but which since then has been neglected. It describes, in a delicious vein of humor, the experiences of a young newspaper man and his wife and boy on a small farm which they leased near the city. "All things," says the New York Tribune, "provide material for mirth, and the author lets no chance escape him. It is the pleasantest book of the kind we have seen for many-a-day."

NOTES IN SEASON.

DOUBLEDAY, PAGE & COMPANY are scoring a success with Mrs. Sara Beaumont Kennedy's "Joscelyn Cheshire," another Southern Colonial story which is already having its second printing, although only a week old. They have also just ready "Doom Castle," by Neil Munro, a historical story of mystery; and "The Mill on the Floss," the third volume in the Personal edition of George Eliot.

LITTLE, BROWN & CO. have just ready "When the Gates Lift Up Their Heads," dealing with the race problem in the South in the seventies, with scene laid in a small mountain town of North Carolina. They have also just issued the fifth edition of "Truth Dexter," the fourth edition of Mrs. Goodwin's "Sir Christopher," and Mary Catherine Crowley's "A Daughter of New France," the third edition of Le Gallienne's "The Love Letters of the King," and the second edition of Ellis Meredith's "The Master-Knot of Human Fate," and of Helen Campbell's "Ballantyne." Mrs. Anna Bowman Dodd's clever comedy, "The American Husband in Paris," is meeting with great appreciation.

SYDNEY HERMAN PRESTON'S new book, "The Abandoned Farmer," was not published until June 5, in spite of its announcement by Charles Scribner's Sons for May 29. It appeared on the same day as Henry Savage Landor's "China and the Allies." This is a story of pure humor. The narrative element is slight, little more than sufficient to give coherence to a succession of delightful situations, as unique, in their way, as those that gave Mr. Stockton's "Rudder Grange" a world-wide reputation. The characters are strongly conceived and sketched with a fine fancy; there are some that will live long in the memories of those who love laughter and appreciate originality. Mr. Preston is a newspaper man. So is his hero. Mr. Preston is a Canadian. His hero, however, is simply American—he will not own to smaller boundaries than this.

FREDERICK A. STOKES COMPANY have just issued "The Last Confessions of Marie Bashkirtseff," with introduction by Miss Jeannette Gilder, the discoverer of Miss Bashkirtseff; and will shortly have ready "The Moderns," by George Trimble Davidson, a novel of New York society; "Mousmé," a continuation of "My Japanese Wife," in which Clive Holland has made his bewitching heroine even more attractive than when she first crept into the hearts of her critics; "Karadac, Count of Gersay," by K. and Hesketh Prichard, a remarkable work dealing with the Normans and Saxons of the Conquest era; and "The Lord of the Sea," a kind of prophetical romance of a condition of the world when private ownership has been established over the seas and oceans of the world. The house also has two new "nature books," "Southern Wild Flowers and Trees," by Alice Lounsberry and Mrs. Ellis Rowan; and "Our Ferns in Their Haunts," by Willard Nelson Chute, illustrated from life by William W. Stilson.

UNDER the general editorship of Caspar Whitney, the Macmillan Company has in preparation the American Sportsman's Library, a series of monographs on the main branches of American sport. The subjects of some of the volumes will be: "The Bear Family," "The Deer Family," The Musk Ox, Sheep and Goat," "Cougar (Mountain Lion or Puma)," "Wild Cat and Lynx," "Trout and Salmon," "Bass, Mascallonge, Pickerel and others," "Tuna, Tarpon and Jew Fish," "Upland Game, Quail, Grouse (Ruffled and Pinnated), Turkey," etc., "Wild Fowl, Ducks," etc. Each volume will be written by a sportsman well known in his own field, and the illustrations will also be drawn by men who have made a specialty of their particular subject. The aim of the series is to present for the first time, at a price within every man's reach, a set of concise, accurate and readable illustrated handbooks, any one of which will give an up-to-date account by an American sportsman of each of the above subjects. Volumes on "Fishing Tackle," "Taxidermy for Hunters," "Arms," etc., are also planned for the series.

WEEKLY RECORD OF NEW PUBLICATIONS.*

The abbreviations are usually self-explanatory. c. after the date indicates that the book is copyrighted; if the copyright date differs from the imprint date, the year of copyright is added. Books of foreign origin of which the edition (annotated, illustrated, etc.) is entered as copyright, are marked c. ed.; translations, c. tr.; n. p., in place of price, indicates that the publisher makes no price, either net or retail, and quotes prices to the trade only upon application.

A colon after initial designates the most usual given name, as: A: Augustus; B: Benjamin; C: Charles; D: David; E: Edward; F: Frederic; G: George; H: Henry; I: Isaac; J: John; L: Louis; N: Nicholas; P: Peter; R: Richard; S: Samuel; T: Thomas; W: William.

Conrad, Jos., and Hueffer, H: Ford Madox. The inheritors: an extravagant story. N. Y., McClure, Phillips & Co., 1901. c. 3+324 p. D. cl., $1.50.
The publishers say "The inheritors" may be described as a Nietzschean novel, the theme of which is the overthrow of the present moral structure of modern society and the establishment of a new order in which the primitive dictum "might makes right" resumes absolute sway. The heroine of the novel, the type of the "superseder" who is to inherit the earth, is a feminine version of the "uebermensch," or superior being of Nietzsche, who carries his way by sheer force of intellect and intensified animal energy.

*Dexter, Almon. And the wilderness blossomed. Phil., H. W. Fisher & Co., 1901. 16°, cl., net, $2.
Tells how the author made a beautiful garden of an island covered with primeval forest, that he purchased some twelve years ago, in one of the interior lakes of Maine. The plants and flowers are fully described.

Dickerson, Mary C. Moths and butterflies; with 200 photographs from life by the author. Bost., Ginn, 1901. c. 18+3-344 p. O. cl., $2.50.
The author is head of the department of biology and nature study in the Rhode Island Normal School, Providence, R. I. The book is entirely untechnical in its treatment of the subject. It will identify by means of photographs from life forty common forms, in caterpillar, chrysalis, or cocoon, and adult stages. It makes clear the external structure adapting the creature to its life; it describes and illustrates the changes in form from caterpillar to chrysalis, from chrysalis to butterfly.

Flynt, Josiah, [pseud. for Josiah Flynt Willard.] The world of graft. N. Y., McClure, Phillips & Co., 1901. c. 6+221 p. D. cl., $1.25.

"The world of graft" is wherever known and unknown thieves, bribe-givers, and bribe-takers congregate. The author went on a tour of discovery into this thieves' world in Chicago, New York, Boston and other places, gaining much information from the thieves themselves about the city government, the police and detectives and police courts, showing how the criminals are protected, etc.

Fradenburgh, J. N., D.D. Life's springtime; or, life—its aim and method. N. Y., Abbey Press, [1901.] c. 191 p. D. cl., $1.

Helpful papers for young men and women entitled: Home, School, Friendship, Church, Business, Sowing and reaping, Woods, Books, Work, Money, etc.

Francke, Kuno. History of German literature as determined by social forces. 4th ed. (enl.) of the author's "Social forces in German literature." N. Y., H: Holt & Co., 1901. c. '96, 1901. 11+595 p. O. cl., $2.50

"At the suggestion of my publishers, the fourth American edition of 'Social forces in German literature' appears under a different title. I have assented to this change partly in order to secure uniformity of title with the first English edition which is to be brought out simultaneously by Messrs. George Bell & Sons, partly because the present title indicates more clearly than the former the fact that this book attempts to give a comprehensive account of the development of German literature as a whole."—Author's note to fourth edition.

Gilbert, Mrs. Viola. Christian science uncovered; its black art exposed. Brooklyn, N. Y., published by the author, Mrs. Viola Gilbert, 1901. por. 24°, pap., 25 c.

Gissing, G: Rob. Our friend the charlatan: a novel. N. Y., H: Holt & Co., 1901. c. 3+386 p. D. cl., $1.50.

Claims to be a study of a well-known type of the modern man, who is "all things to all people." The hero is a young college man who, through his father's misfortunes and his own indolence, is left without an income. He has strong faith in himself and belief in his future. He is superficial, insincere, and dishonest, but sufficiently plausible and magnetic to deceive his victims. These victims are both men and women whom he would make stepping-stones to his ambition. On borrowed money, and under false colors, he runs as a Liberal candidate for Parliament. His career is not without its lesson.

Gotwald, Luther Alex. Joy in the divine government, and other sermons; introd. by H. E. Jacobs. Chic. and N. Y., Revell, 1901. c. 6+314 p. por. 12°, cl., $1.25.

Graham, Mrs. J: Ellsworth. The Toltec Savior: a historical romance of ancient Mexico. N. Y., G: W. Dillingham Co., [1901.] c. 4-298 p. il. D. cl., $1.50.

"The Toltec Savior"—Quetzalcohuatl—is not a mythical character, he was born a prince of the realm and succeeded to the throne of Tollan at an early age. He secretly determined to give up his life in a tragical manner to impress upon his followers a lasting belief that the soul cannot die. The story brings in descriptions of the lost arts and hidden treasures of ancient Mexico.

Great plays (French and German) by Corneille, Molière, Racine, Lessing, Schiller, and Hugo; with biographical notes, and a critical introduction by B. Matthews. [Aldine ed.] N. Y., Appleton, 1901. c. 13+504 p. por. facsim. 8°, (The world's great books.) cl., subs., $3.

Home thoughts, by C. N. Y., A. S. Barnes & Co., 1901. c. 7+311 p. D. cl., $1.50.

Essays reprinted from the Saturday supplement of the New York Evening Post, where they attracted much attention under the above title. They deal with all the elemental conditions which make for happiness in a true home. The interdependent relations of husband and wife, parent and child, and the broad field of domestic government, give the chief themes.

Howard, L. O. Mosquitoes; how they live, how they carry disease, how they are classified, how they may be destroyed. N. Y., McClure, Phillips & Co., 1901. [Je.] c. 11+241 p. il. D. cl., net, $1.50.

This book tells what is known about mosquitoes from the biological point of view, from the medical point of view, and from the practical side. An especial effort has been made to show, in a straightforward way, to physicians how the different kinds of mosquitoes can be distinguished and to indicate the characteristic habits and breeding-places of those forms which spread malaria and yellow fever. Directions are given for collecting mosquitoes, and for rearing in their early stages, and the remedial measures that should be adopted in mosquito-ridden neighborhoods.

Voynich, Mrs. Ethel Lillian Boole. Jack Raymond. Phil., Lippincott, 1901. c. 2+300 p. D. cl., $1.50.

A character study of a moody, reticent boy, whose worst traits are developed under cruel and unjust treatment. The scene is on the Cornish coast of England in the home of the Vicar of the parish who is the uncle of Jack and his sister Molly. The Vicar has an old-fashioned theory about eradicating sin, and almost destroys Jack's body and soul through his brutal method of bringing him to repentance. Jack grown up and a London doctor, has to face social problems, which take him out of himself and soften his character. By the author of "The gadfly."

The Publishers' Weekly.

FOUNDED BY F. LEYPOLDT.

JUNE 8, 1901.

The editor does not hold himself responsible for the views expressed in contributed articles or communications.

All matter, whether for the reading-matter columns or advertising pages, should reach this office not later than Wednesday noon, to insure insertion in the same week's issue.

Books for the "Weekly Record," as well as all information intended for that department, should reach this office by Tuesday morning of each week.

Publishers are requested to furnish title-page proofs and advance information of books forthcoming, both for entry in the lists and for descriptive mention. An early copy of each book published should be forwarded, as it is of the utmost importance that the entries of books be made as promptly and as perfectly as possible. In many cases booksellers depend on the PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY solely for their information. The Record of New Publications of the PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY is the material of the "American Catalogue" and so forms the basis of trade bibliography in the United States.

"I hold every man a debtor to his profession, from the which, as men do of course seek to receive countenance and profit, so ought they of duty to endeavor themselves by way of amends to be a help and an ornament thereunto."—LORD BACON.

LOCAL ASSOCIATIONS AND THE BOOK TRADE.

THE American Booksellers' Association can do no greater service to the trade than by promoting, as it is endeavoring to do, local organization in the several book centers. With the exception of three or four local associations here and there throughout the country, the retail book trade has been singularly without organization in recent years. Most trades of equal importance are nowadays well organized, both locally and nationally, and each trade finds it greatly to its interest to have such means of local co-operation and inter-communication.

There is no business in which such associations may be made more useful than in the book trade. They by no means repress that wholesome competition which is the life of trade, but rather stimulate enterprise in wholesome rivalry. Of recent years competition in the book trade has taken the shape rather of underselling than of emulation in making and filling public demand for books. This has been the crying evil of the discount system, which has been a harm to the bookseller without being of corresponding good to the public. As the new plan succeeds in giving the whole public books at a lowered publishing price but with a real profit to the dealer, there should come more and more into play that spirit of friendly rivalry and wholesome competition which we have indicated and which local associations should promote. We print elsewhere the form of constitution proposed for local associations by the American Booksellers' Association. In an accompanying circular letter the Association has suggested to its members the various uses to which local associations may be put—among others the maintenance not only of published prices, but in some cases of a retail price higher than the published rate, because of the expense of getting books from the book centers to remote points. We have some doubt whether this method of remedying an evident difficulty is practicable or wise. If the published price can be maintained booksellers will in general be better off than they have heretofore been, and perhaps the better method of solving the geographical difficulty is, as has before been suggested, that as co-operation among publishers as well as among booksellers develops there should be depots or warehouses in the great centers outside the East from which books could be supplied at the same price as from New York. Or the same purpose might be accomplished by a system of jobbing discounts, which would permit jobbers in distant centers to supply under like conditions as from New York. This problem is one peculiar to the United States, with its magnificent distances, and it will take some time, under the new régime, to work it out satisfactorily.

We trust that in every city and locality where half a dozen booksellers are within easy reach of one another, steps may be immediately taken to carry out this principle of local associations. We trust also that every bookseller who can will make arrangements to come to New York for the convention which is to be held in July, or at such other time as shall be determined on, for nothing better promotes a healthful trade spirit than that men from different parts of this wide country should meet each other face to face. Local association and national conference are wholesome features of trade life which should not be neglected by the book trade.

PERSONAL NOTES.

JAMES A. TOWNSEND has succeeded E. T. S. Lord as head of the Educational Department of Charles Scribner's Sons. Mr. Townsend was formerly manager of the Western Branch of the Educational Department of the Scribners.

EDWARD T. S. LORD, for the past eight years manager of the Educational Department of Charles Scribner's Sons, has been elected president of the Lothrop Publishing Company, of Boston. Mr. Lord sails for Europe on June 8 in the business interests of the Lothrop Publishing Company. Mr. Harry E. Morrell remains, as before, treasurer and general manager of the company.

AMERICAN BOOKSELLERS' ASSOCIATION.

CONVENTION.

THE constitution provides for an annual meeting in New York City on the second Wednesday in July (being in 1901 July 10), unless the Advisory Board shall otherwise elect. As this date interferes with stock taking, on the part of those who do this work July 1 instead of January 1, it had been proposed that the meeting should be held on July 24 instead of the constitutional date, and a ballot has been sent out to obtain an expression of opinion as to the desirability of this date or of further postponement until the fall. There has been some disposition to hold the meeting in Buffalo in connection with the Pan-American Exposition, but not enough members have voted for such a change to alter the stated place of meeting. It is desirable that members should notify the secretary promptly of their choice of date and of their intention to be present, that proper arrangements may be made for transportation at certificate rates.

SECRETARY.

Mr. J. W. Nichols, who has acted as corresponding secretary during the organization period, has been elected secretary for the coming year by unanimous vote by the members of the Executive Committee and Advisory Board.

LOCAL ASSOCIATIONS.

A form of constitution and by-laws has been prepared, with the assistance of the Advisory Board, for the Executive Committee, to provide for local branches and state departments, and has been sent out with a circular letter dated June 1 to members in different parts of the country, as follows:

PREAMBLE.

Whereas, the mutual interests of all booksellers, newsdealers and stationers, and also of all authors and publishers will be best conserved by the united and harmonious co-operation of all persons engaged in the general trade of selling books, news and stationery; and

Whereas, the interests and reasonable demands of the reading public will best be met by such harmonious co-operation, to the end that

1. Better and more representative stocks will be displayed by local dealers.

2. Better service will be rendered to the reading public in making their selections with the assistance of well-trained salesmen, when the business of selling good literature shall have been dignified as a profession.

3. More reasonable and more uniform prices will ultimately be maintained, when the business shall have been restored to a stable and reasonably profitable basis.

Therefore, be it resolved that we, the undersigned, whose names are attached hereto, do mutually agree to join with each other in forming a local association of the American Booksellers' Association, and that we hereby agree to adopt and do adopt the following constitution and by-laws, to be the fundamental law of this Association, which shall be equally binding upon all members.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

Name.

This Association shall be styled the ..... Branch of the American Booksellers' Association—Department of.....

ARTICLE II.

Membership.

SECTION 1. Classes.—There shall be two classes of members, namely, Charter Members and Active Members.

SEC. 2. Charter Members.—All firms and persons who engage in the sale of books, news or stationery, or in any or all of these vocations, may become Charter Members without paying an Enrolment Fee by signing the enrolment list and paying their annual dues prior to July 1, 1901.

SEC. 3. Active Members.—All firms and persons who engage in the sale of books, news or stationery, or in any or all of these vocations, may become Active Members, by signing the enrolment list and paying an enrolment fee of $1 after July 1, 1901, and annual dues for the current year.

SEC. 4. Privileges and Exemptions.—All Charter Members are also Active Members, and shall be so considered at all times, except in so far as they enjoy special privileges and exemptions.

SEC. 5. Annual Dues.—All Charter and other Active Members must pay annual dues of one ($1) dollar.

SEC. 6. Reinstating of Members.—All members shall be considered in good standing whose annual dues are paid for the current year. Any member whose dues shall not have been paid at the time of filing the annual report with the National Association, after due notice shall have been given, and whose name is for that reason dropped from the list, may be reinstated only on payment of the enrolment fee of one ($1) dollar and the annual dues for the current year.

SEC. 7. Resignation.—Any member may discontinue his membership in this Association by giving written notice to the secretary before March 1 of any year, and may restore the same only on payment of the enrolment fee of one ($1) dollar and the annual dues for the current year.

SEC. 8. Expulsion.—Any member who shall fail to comply with a resolution or reform measure adopted by a two-thirds vote of all Charter and other Active Members of this Association of the national American Booksellers' Association, or who shall fail to observe all reasonable rules and regulations for the conduct of business by the members of this Association, which shall have been adopted by a two-thirds vote, shall immediately be cut from membership by the Executive Committee, and may be reinstated only on giving a bond acceptable to the treasurer of this Association, for the faithful observances of all rules and regulations adopted by it or by the national American Booksellers' Association.

ARTICLE III.

Officers.

SECTION 1. Titles of Office.—The officers of this Association shall consist of a President and a Secretary. A Vice-President and a Treasurer may also be elected. There may also be elected an Executive Committee of not more than five members; and in addition to the members so elected, all officers of this Association shall be members of the Executive Committee ex-officio, unless already elected to membership in the committee.

SEC. 2. Elections.—The officers and the members of the Executive Committee shall be chosen by ballot.

SEC. 3. Term of Office.—All officers and all members of the Executive Committee shall hold office to the end of the current calendar year, or until their successors shall have been chosen, unless removed as hereinafter provided; and thereafter the term of office shall be for one calendar year, beginning on the first day of January of each year.

SEC. 4. Time and Manner of Holding Elections.—The election of officers and members of the Executive Committee for each ensuing year shall be held on the evening of the second Wednesday of November, unless otherwise directed by the Executive Committee, at such hour and place as shall be designated by the secretary in his call for a meeting; and such call shall be issued by the Secretary, under the direction of the Executive Committee, at least three days before the date of the meeting.

SEC. 5. Removals.—A majority of the members in good standing may at any time remove any or all officers of the Association, or any or all members of the Executive Committee, if it shall seem to them advisable to do so; and in that case the president, or in case of his removal the persons taking the initiative, shall immediately appoint a committee to call for and to conduct an election to fill the vacancy so created.

SEC. 6. Eligibility.—No member shall be eligible to office or to the Executive Committee in this Association who is not also an active member of the national organization of the American Booksellers' Association and in good standing.

SEC. 7. The President.—The President shall preside at all meetings of the Association and of the Executive Committee, and he shall perform the duties usually devolving upon a presiding officer. In his absence the Vice-President shall preside; and in the absence of the Vice-President, a pro tempore chairman shall be appointed on motion, the Secretary putting the question.

The President shall sign all orders on the Treasurer for the disbursement of the moneys of this Association, and he shall also sign all general orders, rules and regulations promulgated by the Association for the regulation of the business of the members of this Association, which shall have been endorsed or ratified by at least two-thirds of the members of this Association.

SEC. 8. The Secretary.—The Secretary shall keep a full and accurate report of the proceedings of all meetings of this Association and of all meetings of the Executive Committee, and shall conduct such correspondence as the Executive Committee may assign.

He shall have charge of the membership roll of this Association, and he shall mail to each member a notice of all meetings at least three days in advance of such meeting.

He shall sign, with the President, all orders on the Treasurer for the disbursement of the moneys of this Association; and he shall perform all other duties usually pertaining to the office of Secretary which are not herein specially delegated to other officers.

SEC. 9. The Treasurer.—The Treasurer shall receive, and under the direction of the Executive Committee hold in safe keeping, all moneys paid to the Association; he shall expend the same only upon the order of the President and Secretary; he shall keep an exact account of his receipts and expenditures, with vouchers for the latter, which accounts ending the thirty-first day of December each year he shall render to the Executive Committee, and, when approved by said committee, he shall report the same to the Association at its next meeting.

The Treasurer shall give such bond for the faithful discharge of his duties as may be required by the Executive Committee. A vacancy occurring in the office of Treasurer may be filled by the Executive Committee, except in case of removal as above provided.

SEC. 10. The Executive Committee.—The Executive Committee shall consist of not more than five members, and in addition thereto the officers shall be members of the Executive Committee, by virtue of their office, if not already elected to such committee. All vacancies occurring in said Executive Committee by death or resignation shall be filled by the Executive Committee for the unexpired term; but vacancies by removal shall be filled by an election as above provided.

It shall be the duty of the Executive Committee to devise such measures for adoption as shall seem likely to promote the general welfare of all members, and to submit the same to the members at a regular meeting for ratification or rejection.

It shall also be the duty of the Executive Committee to investigate, either directly or through a sub-committee, any charge of bad faith that may be made by a member against any other member, dealer or publisher; and in case it shall be proved that any member has violated any agreement or resolution entered into by a two-thirds vote of all Charter and other Active Members, and officially declared to be operative, and of which written or printed notice shall have been mailed to all members at their registered address, then the said Executive Committee shall either expel the offending member and cause his name to be dropped from the registered list, and immediately advise all other members of such action; and call upon the Publishers' Association to apply the prescribed penalty; or the said committee may take an acceptable bond from the offending member for his future good faith in the observance of all rules and regulations of this Association, with the provision that if such bond be forfeited it shall not be renewed again for three years, during which time the delinquent dealer shall be cut off from all supplies as provided by the Publishers' Agreement.

In case of the expulsion of a member of this Association for violation of agreement, or in case any dealer outside of this Association and within the territory under its jurisdiction shall be found by a duly constituted committee to have violated any rule or regulation of this Association, or any rule or regulation promulgated by the national American Booksellers' Association, or by the American Publishers' Association, for the conduct of business, the Executive Committee shall immediately notify the Secretary of the National Association and the Manager of the American Publishers' Association, and call upon the latter Association to cut off all of their publications to such expelled member or to such dealer, as provided under Articles III and X of the Publishers' Agreement of February 13, 1901.

It shall also be the duty of the Executive Committee to co-operate with the President in the performance of such other administrative duties as usually devolve upon an Executive Committee.

ARTICLE IV.

Duties of Members.

SECTION 1. Support of Publishers.—It shall be the duty of all members to give their cordial support, in every way possible, to all publishers who co-operate with this Association in the maintenance of such prices as are fair and equitable mutually and alike to authors, publishers, dealers and to the general public.

SEC. 2. Mutual Good Faith.—It shall also be the duty of all members faithfully to observe all rules, regulations and resolutions adopted by a two-thirds vote of this Association for the general welfare of its members—mutual good faith and cordial co-operation being the essence of this compact.

SEC. 3. To Report Infractions.—It shall be the duty of all members promptly to report to the Executive Committee any and all violations of the rules and regulations of this Association, either by a member or by any other dealer doing business in the territory under the jurisdiction of this Association.

SEC. 4. Members Should also Join the National Organization.—It shall be the duty of all members of this Association, as far as possible, to join and to help support the national organization of the American Booksellers' Association, of which this local association is a branch, since, without the national organization to correlate and to assist the local associations, their influence would not be effective.

ARTICLE V.

Assets and Liabilities.

SECTION 1. Assets.—The sole assets of this Association shall consist of the funds derived from enrolment fees and annual dues collected from members, and such donations as may be made to the Association for the purpose of creating a permanent fund, and the income from the investment of such funds.

SEC. 2. No Liabilities May Be Created.—No officer, committee or member of this Association shall be authorized to incur any liability in the name of this Association or on its behalf.

SEC. 3. The Secretary Alone Responsible.—The Secretary, acting under the direction of the Executive Committee, may incur bills in his own name, and on his own responsibility while acting for the Association, which, having been approved by the President, shall be paid.

ARTICLE VI.

State Departments.

SECTION 1. The Formation of Other Local Associations.—It shall be the policy of this Association to encourage the formation of other local associations in this State of ..... to include all booksellers, newsdealers, stationers, and all firms and persons that engage in any or all of these trades.

SEC. 2. Organization of the State Department.—As soon as five or more local associations shall have been formed in this State of ..... the Presidents of the local associations of this State may convene, either upon the call of the member of the Advisory Board for this State in the national association, or upon the call of any three Presidents of local associations in this State; and they may proceed to organize a State Department by electing a Director.

SEC. 3. Duties of the Director.—It shall be the duty of the Director of the State Department to correspond with the several local associations in this State, to the end that the rules and regulations adopted by the several local organizations may be harmonized and reduced to a practical uniformity.

SEC. 4. The Adoption of State Measures.—When any reform measure, rule or regulation for the conduct of business shall have been adopted by this Association, the Secretary shall promptly report it to the Director of the State Department, and he in turn shall report it to each of the other local associations in this State, to be acted upon by them.

SEC. 5. Binding on all Dealers Alike.—When a reform measure, rule or regulation shall have been ratified by three-fourths of the local organizations in this State, is shall become binding upon all dealers alike, whether they be members of a local association of this department or members of the National Organization, or identified with neither organization.

SEC. 6. Co-operation of the American Publishers' Association.—The American Publishers' Association shall be called upon, when necessary, to help enforce these measures, as provided in Articles III and X of the Publishers' Agreement of February 13, 1901.

SEC. 7. The Nomination of a Member of the Advisory Board.—The member of the Advisory Board in the national organization may be nominated by a majority of the local associations in this State Department—ballots for the same to be cast by the Presidents of the local associations, acting under the instruction of the local associations, or by delegates elected by the local associations for this purpose.

SEC. 8. Annual Reports of State Department.—The Director of the State Department shall call upon all local associations in this State for a report of the names of all members in good standing on the first day of March of each year; and he shall file, with the Secretary of the national organization, a report of the names of all members in good standing in this State Department, not later than April 1 of each year.

ARTICLE VII.

Meetings.

SECTION 1. Regular Meetings.—The regular meetings of this local Association shall be held on the second Wednesday of each month, at such time and place as the Executive Committee may prescribe.

SEC. 2. Special Meetings.—Special meetings of this Association may be called by the President, at the request of three or more members.

SEC. 3. Meeting of Executive Committee.—The Executive Committee may be convened on the call of the President, or on the joint call of any three members of the Committee.

ARTICLE VIII.

By-Laws.

By-Laws not inconsistent with this Constitution may be adopted by a two-thirds vote of the Association.

ARTICLE IX.

Amendments.

This Constitution may be altered or amended at a regular meeting by the unanimous vote of the members present, provided a majority of all members is present; or by a two-thirds vote of all members present at a regular meeting, provided three days' written notice shall have been given to all members of the nature of the amendment to be adopted at such meeting.

BY-LAWS.

I. At the first meeting of the Association, after each annual election, the President shall appoint the following

COMMITTEES:

On Books.

1. A committee of three members, at least one of whom shall be a member of the Executive Committee, to formulate and report rules and regulations for the control of the local sale of books.

On Periodicals.

2. A committee of three members, one of whom shall be a member of the Executive Committee, to formulate and report rules and regulations for the local sale of periodicals.

COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS.

II. At the last meeting of the Association prior to the annual election, the President shall appoint a committee of not more than five members, at least three of whom shall be members of the national association, to nominate and report candidates for office, at the annual election.

PROCEDURE.

III. Cushing's Manual shall be the guide for procedure at all meetings of this Association.

DOCTOR JOHNSON ON THE NET BOOK SYSTEM.

"IT may not be uninteresting to those of 'the trade' who have not seen it," Mr. E. Marston points out in a recent issue of the London Publishers' Circular, "to read Dr. Johnson's opinion as to what their profits should be. The discussion arose out of the question why the profits derived from the Clarendon Press were so scanty:

"'The booksellers, who, like all other men, have strong prejudices in their own favor, and are inclined to think the practice of printing and selling books by any but themselves an encroachment on the rights of their fraternity; and have need of stronger inducements to circulate academical publications than those of another; for, of that mutual co-operation by which the general trade is carried on, the University can bear no part. Of those whom he neither loves nor fears, and from whom he expects no reciprocation of good offices, why should any man promote the interest but for profit?'

"These remarks are not applicable to the University publications of to-day, perhaps, but they apply generally to all outside publications on which 'the trade' does not get fair allowance.

"'It is, perhaps, not considered through how many hands a book often passes, before it comes into those of the reader; or what part of the profit each hand must retain, as a motive for transmitting it to the next.

"'We will call our primary agent in London Mr. Cadell, who receives our books from us, gives them room in his warehouse, and issues them on demand; by him they are sold to Mr. Dilly, a wholesale bookseller, who sends them into the country; and the last seller is the country (or retail) bookseller. Here are three profits to be paid between the printer and the reader . . . and if any of these profits is too penuriously distributed, the process of commerce is interrupted. . . . We must allow, for profit, between thirty and thirty-five per cent.—between six and seven shillings in the pound—that is, for every book which costs the last buyer twenty shillings, we must charge Mr. Cadell with something less than fourteen. We must set the copies at 14*s.* each, and superadd what is called the quarterly book, or for every hundred books so charged we must deliver an hundred and four.

"'The profits will then stand thus: Mr. Cadell, who runs no hazard, and gives no credit (?), will be paid for warehouse room and attendance by a shilling profit on each book, and his chance of the quarterly book: Mr. Dilly, who buys the book for fifteen shillings, and will expect the quarterly book if he takes five and twenty, will send it to his country customer at sixteen and sixpence, by which, at the hazard of loss, and the certainty of long credit, he gains the regular profit of ten per cent. which is expected in the wholesale trade; the country bookseller buying at sixteen and sixpence, and commonly trusting a considerable time, gains but three shillings and sixpence—and if he trusts a year, not much more than two and sixpence; otherwise than as he may, perhaps, take as long credit as he gives.

"'With less profit than this, and more you see he cannot have, the country bookseller cannot live, for his receipts are small and his debts sometimes bad.'

"Thus the good doctor, the son of a bookseller, gives advice, which, as he says, 'every man has not had opportunity of knowing.' Here is the net book system, pure and simple. No nonsense about twopence in the shilling to the reader. Perhaps the chief objection to his argument is that he only gives five per cent. commission to his publisher with a possible twenty-fifth copy; but the object of his letter was to enforce a little common sense 'in the transaction of business, with men who are above knowing or caring what they do.'"

SUBSCRIPTION BOOKS IN THE REGULAR TRADE.

A CASE of importance to the book trade has recently been decided in the Supreme Court before Judge Fitzgerald, in Peale & Hill vs. George C. Bartlett. In the early part of 1899 Mr. Bartlett had bought from Charles R. Benjamin, who is not to be confused with William E. Benjamin, though for some time in his employ, some sets of "Warner's Library of the World's Best Literature," obtained by him from Richard S. Peale and James A. Hill, 91 Fifth Avenue, publishing that work as "The International Society." Mr. Benjamin, it was stated, had purchased the books for export to Porto Rico, but they were delivered to him at 6 West 22d Street, and paid for by his promissory note, according to a previous agreement. Mr. Benjamin, it was stated, then sold these books at cut rates to book dealers in New York, and some of them were bought by Mr. George C. Bartlett, a well-known book dealer at 33 East 22d Street. Peale & Hill seized the books in Mr. Bartlett's store on writ of replevin, claiming that Mr. Benjamin had obtained them by fraud and had been guilty of grand larceny, and that Mr. Bartlett had been a receiver of stolen goods. Under advice of his counsel, Messrs. Hawes & Judge, of 120 Broadway, Mr. Bartlett declined to give counter bond, and elected to stand trial on the main issue, stating in his general denial that he was an innocent purchaser in good faith and for a valuable consideration. The case was not reached for two years, but was recently argued before Judge Fitzgerald and a jury, Gilbert R. Hawes, Esq., representing the defendant, and Lenny and Donovan, the plaintiffs. Letters of Mr. Peale and Mr. Hill were produced to show that an actual and outright sale was made for which promissory notes were accepted, and after three days' trial the case went to the jury, which promptly returned a verdict in favor of the defendant for the full value of the books. The outcome of this case seems to establish the principle that book dealers may sell subscription books over their counters without that being prima facie evidence that they have been wrongfully obtained.

FREE SCHOOL BOOKS IN CHICAGO.

PARENTS of 200,000 children attending the public schools of Chicago are to have an opportunity to indicate their attitude on the question of supplying free text-books to pupils in the four lower grades of the elementary schools. At the instigation of Trustee Rowland blank statements are to be placed in the hands of the 6000 teachers on the educational force for distribution to the school children, who will present them to their parents for signatures. The circular that will be sent out will contain arguments for the free-book system, and the answers to the question, "Do you favor free books for the four lower grades?" will be compiled and presented to the board as an indication of popular sentiment. Trustee Rowland expects that at least 80 per cent. of the parents will favor the new plan, and in the face of a gigantic petition signed by such a majority that the opposition by board members will vanish.

RAND, McNALLY & CO.'S NEW BUILDING.

RAND, McNALLY & Co., Chicago, impossible as it seems, have outgrown their present quarters and are about to erect a ten-story new building to house their entire business, including offices, editorial rooms and their mammoth printing and binding plant.

The property secured for building upon belongs to the school fund and is located at Clark and Harrison Streets and Pacific Avenue, near the Rock Island depot. The Harrison Street police station now occupies part of the site. The firm has secured a ninety-nine year lease at a graduated rental upon a valuation of $287,500, they to pay $14,375 a year for the first decade, $15,812 for the next ten years, and $18,600 for the balance of the term.

The new building, which is to cost not less than $400,000, will be ten stories high and be of steel frame and fireproof. Their present building on Adams Street is one of the finest for its purposes in the city, being fireproof and handsomely finished off. Demands upon it for office purposes have crowded out part of the manufacturing department and outside quarters were occupied some years ago. The design of the firm is to consolidate its business and manufacturing departments under one roof. This firm comes nearer perhaps to doing its entire manufacturing than any other in the United States. We have not yet heard that it manufactures ink, paper or type, but otherwise almost everything that goes into its vast output is made on its own premises.

OBITUARY NOTES.

EBENEZER WARD.

We regret to announce the death on May 19, at Holmwood, Routh Road, Wandsworth Common, England, of Ebenezer Ward, late of Ward, Lock & Co., Warwick House, Salisbury Square, London, of which firm he was one of the founders. Mr. Ward, who was born eighty-three years ago, was educated at Christ's Hospital, and obtained his initiation into the publishing business in the house of Mr. Henry G. Bohn. He was connected with Mr. Bohn for about ten years, and subsequently took the management of the book department of Messrs. Ingram, Cook & Co. In 1854, however, he decided to start in business for himself, and through Mr. T. D. Galpin (who, with Mr. George Petter, had established the firm of Petter & Galpin, now Cassell's), he was introduced to Mr. George Lock, with whom he entered into partnership, and commenced operations as Ward & Lock at 158 Fleet Street. Mr. Ward attended to the financial department of the house for more than twenty-six years, and owing to ill health he retired from active business about twenty years ago. For the benefit of his health Mr. Ward has for many years past spent most of his time abroad, and consequently has lost touch with many of his old friends and associates. He leaves a widow and three daughters. The funeral took place at Norwood Cemetery on Thursday, May 23.

Henry W. Howgate, at one time signal officer in the United States Army, and for several years a second-hand bookseller in New York City, died suddenly on Sunday, June 2, of cerebral hemorrhage at the home of his daughter in Washington. While chief disbursing officer of the Signal Service $300,000 were unaccounted for and Captain Howgate was arrested on suspicion in 1882. Before his trial he escaped from the officers, and for thirteen years he eluded all attempts to retake him, although a good part of the time running a book store under an assumed name in the heart of New York City. In 1895 he was finally arrested and convicted and served a term in the penitentiary, coming out last December, apparently full of energy to start life once more.

NOTES ON AUTHORS.

Miss Mary Johnston intends to make a play herself of her new novel, "Audrey," now running as serial in The Atlantic. She thinks much good material was thrown away by the manner in which "To Have and to Hold" was shaped for the stage.

Harold MacGrath, the author of "The Puppet Crown," comes of Scotch ancestry, and now lives in Syracuse, N. Y. He is cheerful and totally devoid of literary affectations. His book is full of insight into the political quicksands of the day, but he veils his excellent thoughts in a very well told story.

We learn on the authority of the publishers that Will Payne, author of "The Story of Eva," is a man and not a woman's pseudonym, as suggested by The Outlook. Mr. Payne was at one time editor of the Chicago News and one of the editors of the Economist of Chicago, and he has written many clever stories for The Atlantic and McClure's.

The Marquis de Vogüé and Edmond Rostand, author of "Cyrano de Bergerac" and "L'Aiglon," have been received into the French Academy. M. Rostand, who is only thirty, is one of the youngest "Immortals" on record, and was only admitted after much opposition. It is rumored that Mme. Sarah Bernhardt actively canvassed for M. Rostand. The Marquis de Vogüé, who is seventy-two, is an authority on Eastern art and architecture.

Mr. W. H. Boardman, whose "Lovers of the Woods" has recently been published by McClure, Phillips & Co., is a Westerner, having been born in northern Illinois in 1846. He graduated at the University of Michigan, and afterward studied civil engineering. He is now president and treasurer of the corporation publishing the Railway Gazette, and is a resident of New York. He is president of the Adirondack League Club, and for many years has not failed to spend his summers in the wildest and most inaccessible portion of the Adirondacks.

JOURNALISTIC NOTES.

Paid subscriptions to the number of 3217 were received for The World's Work during the week ending June 1. Cash receipts for May were $2555.46 more than December, usually regarded as the best month for magazines. All this is because The World's Work has the breath of life in it, and the kind of life that attracts many people.

The Index and Review is the title of a new monthly journal devoted to the bibliographical record of government publications, of which the first number has appeared, dated March, listing all public documents printed during that month. The list is classed under government departments and sub-arranged alphabetically. It is prefaced by useful general directions regarding the printing and distribution of documents, and by a few more extended notices of special publications. The Index and Review is designed to meet the demand for a register of government documents that cannot be fully supplied by the limited edition of the official "Monthly Catalogue" of public documents. It is published by Wallace J. Young and Cullom H. Ferrell, Washington Loan & Trust Building, Washington, D. C., at $1 per year.

BEST SELLING BOOKS.

According to the Bookman, the six books which have sold best in the order of demand during the month of May are:

1. Alice of Old Vincennes. Thompson. (Bowen-Merrill Co.)
2. The Visits of Elizabeth. Glyn. (Lane.)
3. Eben Holden. Bacheller. (Lothrop & Co.)
4. Richard Yea-and-Nay. Hewlett. (Macmillan.)
5. Like Another Helen. Horton. (Bowen-Merrill Co.)
6. { The Turn of the Road. Frothingham. (Houghton, Mifflin & Co.)
   { Truth Dexter. McCall. (Little, Brown & Co.)

LITERARY AND TRADE NOTES.

THE sales of "David Harum" continue despite all the later successes. Two thousand copies were sold in Chicago alone during the last week in May.

GEORGE W. JACOBS & Co. have published "The Fallen God and Other Essays in Literature and Art," by Joseph Spencer Kennard, of Des Moines College, Iowa.

BERKELEY'S "Principles of Human Knowledge" is added by the Open Court Publishing Co. to the Religion of Science Library, which now appears in an attractive new cover.

RICHARD BADGER & Co. have just ready "The Son of a Tory," a romance of the American Revolution, by Clinton Scollard, with scene laid in the Mohawk Valley in the year 1777.

LEE & SHEPARD have just issued "The Symphony of Life," a series of constructive sketches and interpretations of Henry Wood, author of several thoughtful books of philosophical study.

A. C. MCCLURG & Co. will bring out shortly a volume of "Aphorisms and Reflections" on the weightiest problems of human life, by Bishop Spalding, who is always sure of a wide circle of readers.

DOXEY'S (At the Sign of the Lark), New York, has just issued "The Book of Jade," a volume of verse by an author of whom we are only told that he is an American and a graduate of a leading American college. He claims for himself to be leader of the decadents.

B. F. JOHNSON PUBLISHING Co., Richmond, Va., have just issued "Civil History of the Confederate States," by J. L. M. Curry, with some personal reminiscences of the author, whose aim is to remove prejudice and throw clearer light on historical and constitutional truths.

D. C. HEATH & Co. have published a revised series of the "Complete Graded Arithmetics of George E. Atwood," books highly prized by intelligent teachers seeking to accomplish the best results without exceeding the time that can properly be devoted to the subject of arithmetic.

"THE LAST LADY OF MULBERRY," published by the Appletons, is attracting renewed attention, owing to the recent publication of the fact that the romance is founded upon a true episode of the Italian quarter of New York City in which the name of Mrs. Grover Cleveland played a conspicuous part.

HENRY MALKAN, 1 William Street, New York City, is the publisher of "Indian Basketry," by George Wharton James, a popular treatise comprehensively describing the baskets and basket makers of the great American Southwest, the Pacific coast and Alaska, illustrated with upwards of 300 pictures.

J. S. OGILVIE PUBLISHING Co. has an edition of "Salathiel, the Wandering Jew," by Rev. George Croly, reprinted from the original first edition of 1827, illustrated with ten full-page pictures. They have also a series of fifty new copyright books, all good sellers, which they offer to the trade at liberal discount.

RAND, MCNALLY & Co. are showing many attractive new books, in addition to their regular lines. The new Independent Library of 12mos issued by this firm is quite a departure from the ordinary series, and is a decided novelty. Merchants who are always up to date will certainly desire to see these new books.

GINN & Co. have just issued in their International Modern Language Series "La Grammaire" and "Le Baron de Fourchevif," two comedies by Labiche, edited, with notes, by Herman S. Piatt, of the University of Illinois; and "The Guildford Speller," with word studies and dictionary work by A. B. Guildford and Aaron Lovell.

HERBERT S. STONE & Co. have just ready "By the Waters of Babylon," by Mrs. Reginald de Koven, a study of ancient manners and customs; and "Sawdust and Spangles," by W. C. Coup, containing much information about the methods and the trials of the pioneer showman. The stories are bright and are illustrated by Gustave Verbeck.

IMOGEN CLARK'S charming novel of old Dutch New York, "God's Puppets," is to be reprinted in England by John Murray and published there under the title of "The Domine's Garden." The garden craze is very strong in England just now, which may possibly be the reason of the change in title. The story already has a Canadian edition under its American title.

FLEMING H. REVELL COMPANY will issue "Latin America: the Pagans, the Papists, the Patriots, the Protestants and the Present Problem," by the Rev. H. W. Brown, of the Presbyterian Mission, Mexico. The Latin-speaking countries of America are receiving great attention this year, owing to the Pan-American Exposition, and the book is published at the right moment.

HARPER & BROTHERS have just ready "The Tribulations of a Princess," by the author of "The Martyrdom of an Empress," who as yet remains incognito. This anonymous author now gives us her autobiography, a fascinating narrative full of most intimate personal recollections of the Austrian and Russian courts, of kings and emperors, of intrigue and of the intimate life of those whom we know only as public men.

A. WESSELS COMPANY will issue immediately Macaulay's two essays on "The Earl of Chatham" in Arthur L. Humphrey's series of Large Type Books, which have been wonderfully successful, only Plato's "Republic" and Emerson's and Bacon's essays being still in print. During the year "The Ethics of Aristotle" will also be added to the series. This publisher also will issue "A Study of Algernon Charles Swinburne," by Theodore Wratislow.

LAST Saturday afternoon, at Barretto Point, the Baker & Taylor baseball team played their first game this season, defeating the Funk & Wagnalls team by the score of 37 to 12. The Baker & Taylor team has several dates open in July and August for any publishing house wishing to play games to be played on Saturday afternoons only. The line-up is as follows: Young, cf.; Fream, rf.; Van Horn, lf.; Gray, ss.; Sullivan, 1b.; Baumgard, 2b.; Daum, 3b.; Moffitt, p.; Dillon, c.

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS are to bring out a new edition of "Time and Chance," the novel Elbert Hubbard wrote, with John Brown for its hero. The two volumes have now been worked over into one, greatly to the advantage of the really excellent story. The book is serious, and should interest all readers of historical fiction. The house will also publish immediately "Quality Corner," by Mrs. C. L. Antrobus, a new English writer of fiction; and have besides in preparation for the fall another work of the same writer, to be entitled "Wildersmoor." Mrs. Antrobus has been compared with George Eliot for her humor in dealing with country types and conditions.

"JACK RAYMOND," the new novel by Mrs. Voynich, author of "The Gadfly," was published one week ago by J. B. Lippincott Co. A second edition is now being bound, and a third edition is in preparation. The book, as the publishers anticipated, elicited the most diverse and sharp of opinion, and the indications are that it will prove one of the greatest sellers of the year. In about two weeks the same house will publish "That Sweet Enemy," a new novel by Katharine Tynan (Mrs. Hinkson), the author of the "Dear Irish Girl" and "The Handsome Brandons." That Mainwaring Affair" is steadily gaining in sales. The publishers are behind in their orders. The seventh edition of this detective story is now in press.

LAIRD & LEE have a very excellent book on "Practical Hypnotism," by Comte C. de Saint-Germain. who has drawn upon the knowledge of French, German, English, American, Italian and Swedish specialists to make his systematic and reliable work on hypnotism, magnetism and suggestion. The book has a vocabulary of medical terms and many valuable foot-notes. The new "Conklin's Manual" has just come from the press so fully revised as to make it practically a new book, more than 150 pages having been altered to take care of recent events. Latest political events, recent discoveries, statistics and descriptions of Porto Rico, Hawaii, the Philippine Islands, etc., will prove interesting, and we are assured that they are accurate.

G. W. DILLINGHAM COMPANY publish in very handsome style a "Reply to the Man With the Hoe," by the author of "Joy Bells." This is a strong manly plea for the honor and pleasure of labor. The author says in his preface: "The worker in the field wherever the author has seen him is interesting and observant. He has a marked individuality, a keen sense of humor, is possessed of a fund of information on natural subjects, of which the average dwellers in the city know little or nothing, and is apt from his standpoint to look down with complacency on their ignorance. To every thoughtful toiler in the country the contact with the greater miracle of nature, the advent of spring with its delightful flowers, and the harvest ripening before his eyes must prove a constant inspiration."

BIBLIOGRAPHIC NOTES.

CHARLES T. POWNER, Greensburg, Indiana, has issued "A Bulletin of Rare Slavery Manuscripts," consisting entirely of original documents, including bills of sale of slaves, deeds of gift of slaves, deeds of emancipation, mortgages, deeds of trust, inventories and valuations of slaves, divisions of slaves among heirs, etc. These manuscripts, many of which are very elaborate, have been in the hands of a private collector for years, and are in very good condition.

THE seventh section of Henry Carrington Bolton's "Select Bibliography of Chemistry" appears as No. 1253 of the "Smithsonian Miscellaneous Collections." It is devoted exclusively to academic dissertations, especially those from the universities of France, Germany, Russia, and the United States, published independently of periodicals. This forms the third volume of the bibliography, and completes the undertaking begun in 1888. The entire work contains more than 25,000 entries.

J. C. HINRICHS, of Leipzig, has issued the first part of "Hinrichs' Fünfjahrs-Katalog der im deutschen buchhandel erschienenen bücher, Zeitschriften, landkarten, etc., 1896-1900." These will form the tenth volume of the work. Experience and knowledge of the special needs of the trade have led to some modifications of the plan of compilation by which accuracy and completeness are secured while at the same time the size of the volume will be kept within former bounds. It is expected that the completed volume will be in the hands of subscribers by December next.

A SPANISH bibliography has been a long-felt want, especially of recent years, when the study of Spanish has so greatly increased. In March a booksellers' association was established at Madrid, and D. Enrique Bailly-Bailliere was elected president. The constitution of the Asociación de la Libreria is apparently modelled on that of the Cercle Français de la Librairie. Among its first activities is the publication of the Bibliografia Español, which will appear on the 1st and 15th of every month. The first issue, dated May 1, contains three divisions: 1, the bibliography of new publications, titles in full indicating the number of the edition sizes, pages, publisher, date and price; 2, "Cronica," giving report of the junta's first session, the constitution and notices to the trade; 3, publishers' advertisements, books wanted, etc. Lemcke & Buechner will take orders for the United States.

DR. OTTO MUHLBRECHT, of Berlin, has compiled the bibliography of political science, political economy and law for 1900 under the title "Uebersicht der gesammten staats- und rechtswissenschaftlichen Litteratur des Jahres 1900." This is the thirty-third annual cumulation of the lists appearing six times a year in Allgemeine Bibliographie der Staats- und Rechtswissenschaften, to which is added an excellent index and very valuable statistical information. The bibliography is not confined to German literature, but includes works published in France, Belgium, England, Scandinavia, the Netherlands, Italy, Spain and the United States. The bulk of the titles, however, come from Germany, Austria and Switzerland, 2598 titles of the 4340 included being of this origin. French titles, including Belgic, number 551, English-American 585, Italian, 285, Dutch 122, Scandinavian 117, and Spanish 82. The statistics given state that during the thirty-three years covered this bibliography has recorded 120,586 titles. Of these there were German, 60,255; French, 21,892; English, 16,943; Italian, 9514; Dutch 5691; Scandinavian, 1497, and Spanish, 2094. The work is published by the firm of Puttkammer & Muhlbrecht, of which the scholarly compiler is a member. They have also just brought out Part 2 of the compilation of these annuals, covering from 1893 to 1900. Part 1 was issued in February, 1893.

JUNE 17, 3 P.M.—Natural history, American Revolution, Africa, West Indies, Mexico, etc. (328 lots.)—Bangs.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

Under the heading "Books Wanted" book-trade subscribers are given the privilege of a free advertisement for books out of print, of five nonpareil lines exclusive of address, in any issue except special numbers, to an extent not exceeding 100 lines a year. If more than five lines are sent, the excess is at 10 cents a line, and amount should be inclosed. Bids for current books and such as may be easily had from the publishers, and repeated matter, as well as all advertisements from non-subscribers, must be paid for at the rate of 10 cents a line.

Under the heading "Books for Sale," the charge to subscribers and non-subscribers is 10 cents a nonpareil line for each insertion. No deduction for repeated matter.

Under the heading "Situations Wanted," subscribers are entitled to one free insertion of five lines. For repeated matter and advertisements of non-subscribers the charge is 10 cents a line.

All other small, undisplayed, advertisements will be charged at the uniform rate of 10 cents a nonpareil line. Eight words may be reckoned to the line.

Parties with whom we have no accounts must pay in advance, otherwise no notice will be taken of their communications.

Parties desiring to receive answers to their advertisements through this office should either call for them or enclose postage stamps with their orders for the insertion of such advertisements. In all cases we must have the full address of advertisers, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

BOOKS WANTED.

☞ In answering, please state edition, condition, and price, including postage or express charges.

Houses that are willing to deal exclusively on a cash-on-delivery basis will find it to their advantage to put after their firm-name the word [Cash].

☞ Write your wants plainly and on one side of the sheet only. Illegibly-written "wants" will be considered as not having been received. The "Publishers' Weekly" does not hold itself responsible for errors.

It should be understood that the appearance of advertisements in this column, or elsewhere in the "Publishers' Weekly" does not furnish a guarantee of credit. While it is endeavored to safeguard these columns by withdrawing the privilege of their use from advertisers who are not "good pay," booksellers should take the usual precaution, as to advertisers not known to them, that they would take in making sales to any unknown parties.

THE THULSTRUP ILLUSTRATED EDITION

TARRY THOU TILL I COME

A Great Historical Romance

By GEORGE CROLY

20 Full-Page Drawings, Including a Beautiful Frontispiece in Colors, by T. de THULSTRUP

Introduction by Gen. LEW WALLACE, who pronounces it to be one of the SIX GREATEST ENGLISH NOVELS EVER WRITTEN

IN NO OTHER story have we so glowing and faithful a picture of that life in which Christ went to death, and the new Church took root, and the cataclasm in Jewish history came—the clash between Jew and Roman, in which the Jewish nation sank "as a continent sinks"—a historical novel of extraordinary power, covering the gap of 37 years from the crucifixion to the destruction of Jerusalem.

"The intensity and majesty of this book are almost indescribable. It is a sweeping torrent in thought and expression—of passion, love, remorse, adventure, treachery, bloody conflict, madness, and portrayals of wonders in the heavens above and the earth beneath—the glorious imaginings of a lofty mind, at once philosophic and poetic."—Book-lovers' Library Bulletin.

"It leads the procession of historical novels at one bound."—N. Y. Mail and Express.

"Nothing more graphic has ever burst from a red hot inspiration."—Brooklyn Eagle.

"It is one of the greatest historical novels that has ever been written."—Baltimore Sun.

IN DEEP ABYSS By GEORGES OHNET

Author of "The Ironmaster," "Dr. Rameau," "Antoinette," "Love's Depths," etc.

(TRANSLATED BY FRED. ROTHWELL, B.A.)

"An absorbing story of love and intrigue."—The Cleveland World.

"It has an atmosphere of mystery and a plot full of passion and intrigue."—Detroit Free Press.

"No work in recent years surpasses this story in intense dramatic interest. Though often to the highest degree sensational, it is never commonplace, which is a combination of traits very rare in this sort of literature. The characters are numerous and well drawn, and the scenes, which follow in rapid succession, are dashing and picturesque."—The Springfield Union.

Letters from the Trade

"I am delighted with 'Your Uncle Lew,' and predict a large sale."

H. LEE MASON,
Of J. R. Weldin Company,
Pittsburg, Pa.

"'Your Uncle Lew' afforded me much pleasure. It is a 'bang up' story."

A. ECKLE,
Of Siegel-Cooper Company,
New York.

"'Your Uncle Lew' is an excellent book and should be a good seller."

M. J. LYONS,
Of T. Pillot,
Houston, Texas.

"I have read 'Your Uncle Lew' with much pleasure and interest, and would recommend it to all who are fond of a realistic life story."

Mrs. D. M. HURD,
Of Dey Brothers & Co.,
Syracuse, N. Y.

"I read 'Your Uncle Lew' and found it very enjoyable. The horse race was especially good. I have taken pleasure in recommending it to my customers. The book has had a large sale with me."

W. Y. FOOTE,
Syracuse, N. Y.

"Having read 'Your Uncle Lew,' I can state sincerely that in my opinion it comes next to 'David Harum,' and is bound to please the lovers of David. While it somewhat resembles David in wit and humor, it is enough unlike to escape being called an imitation or copy of David."

ROBERT WRIGHT,
Of Robert Clarke Company,
Cincinnati, O.

"I consider 'Your Uncle Lew' a very good book with plenty of snap and go to it, so that I am sure it must please almost everyone who knows something of the ways of the men of the world. It is certainly a good character study, with just enough romance in it to interest the reader."

HERMAN KLEINTEICH,
Of R. H. White & Co.,
Boston, Mass.

"'Your Uncle Lew' is a good story of its kind—that is, the semi-country, semi-sporting novel. It aims to show that a rough exterior may conceal a kindly heart. Its chapters are strongly humorous and its characters stand out boldly. Ninety-five men out of a hundred will like it."

WARD MACAULEY,
Of Macauley Brothers,
Detroit, Mich.

"It seems to us that 'Your Uncle Lew' will rank high among the many character sketches that have appeared during the past two years. The description of the trotting race in the last part of the book is intensely interesting, and Uncle Lew's 'Jig along Jane' portrays strongly the deep feeling of a kind-hearted man for a good horse that is doing its best."

R. S. DAVIS & CO.,
Pittsburg, Pa.

"I have enjoyed reading 'Your Uncle Lew' very much. The descriptions are clear cut, and any one admiring a good, all-round, jovial book will enjoy reading its pages. It has quite an original style, and is a little different from anything I have ever read along that line. As a horse-trader Uncle Lew was perfection, and I have yet to see his equal."

H. H. GODBER,
Of Waco Drug and Stationery Co.,
Waco, Texas.

"I regret my inability to express to you how much I have enjoyed 'Your Uncle Lew.' Mr. Sherlock has portrayed to us in his Uncle Lew a character that one cannot help admiring, for beneath that shrewd and fun-loving exterior there exists a loving nature that will endear him to all his readers. The story contains a great many amusing incidents, especially the sale of Snow Bird and Uncle Lew's clever interpretation pertaining to the ringing of the bell on the arrival of all trains, and one regrets when the end has been reached."

E. M. HARRIS,
Of W. B. Clarke Company,
Boston, Mass.

Letters from the Trade

"I have enjoyed reading 'Your Uncle Lew' greatly. It is a smooth, cleverly arranged story, with natural local color of general interest, and the history of the noted Cardiff Giant woven around the robust and humorous portrayal of the main character affords a delightful entertainment to the reader. It should make a record sale."

A. C. WALKER,
Of Scrantom, Wetmore & Co.,
Rochester, N. Y.

"I find Mr. Sherlock's book, 'Your Uncle Lew,' quite entertaining, and, while it may be classed among the American character stories for which 'David Harum' paved the way, its elaboration and exposé of the Cardiff Giant fake and its vivid picture of 'Crazy Jane's' wonderful freak race and record give it a unique character of its own."

F. D. PORCHER,
Of Stix, Baer & Fuller,
St. Louis, Mo.

"'Your Uncle Lew' held my interest from beginning to end, and I have read the chapters of Uncle Lew's connection with the turf three times. It is the best account of a horse race that I have ever read, and Uncle Lew's 'Jig along Jane' ought to be a very catchy phrase. I was also particularly struck with Uncle Lew's ideas on drinking and swearing. In talking to customers I have pointed out that passage as showing the philosophy of the chief character."

WILLIAM C. EDWARDS,
Of Scrantom, Wetmore & Co.,
Rochester, N. Y.

"'Your Uncle Lew's' love for his daughter his desire for her finished education and his determination that her father's humble calling (a restaurant keeper) should never obtrude itself among her new-found friends show a side of his character as fine as it is touching. On the whole, one finishes his perusal of the book with the feeling that his time in reading it has been profitably spent.

P. J. SHEA,
Troy, N. Y.

TO PUBLISHERS

I desire to call the attention of Publishers, who have not patronized my establishment, to the fact that I am Now Binding, for several well known Publishers, a Large Quantity of The Most Popular Copyrighted Books.

These contracts were awarded to me for the following reasons, viz.:

QUALITY { Perfect workmanship in every department.

PRICE { Owing to the employment of skilled labor, modern machinery, and an abundance of capital, I am enabled to quote lower prices for better work than any other binder.

QUANTITY { I have the Best Equipped Plant in the Country, with a capacity of 15,000 to 20,000 high grade books per day.

Publishers will find it to their advantage to inspect my plant and its products before placing their orders.

THE

American Catalogue

1895-1900

THE present volume of the American Catalogue covers books recorded from July 1, 1895, to January 1, 1900, including books with the imprint 1900 issued within 1899, and also books of 1899 recorded after January 1, 1900. The first alphabet contains 559 pages, as compared with 498 pages in the 1890–1895 volume, and the subject alphabet 301 pages as compared with 251 pages. The List of Publishers (with addresses) includes 1666 names. Appendixes for Government Publications, State Publications, and Publications of Societies, now otherwise provided for, are not given in this volume.

The edition, as before, is limited. The price is $12.50 in sheets and $15 in half morocco. The fact that most of the previous volumes are out of print and selling at extra price suggests the value of investment in this completing volume of the present series.

A POWERFUL NOVEL.

The Romance of Gilbert Holmes.

By MARSHALL MONROE KIRKMAN.

SELLING BY THOUSANDS.

"The Romance of Gilbert Holmes" will find a permanent place in twentieth century literature. It is remarkable for the purity of its English; its choice and rhythmic diction; its profound character analyses, and its charming nature descriptions - unsurpassed in our language. The exquisite love story that runs through its pages makes the book appeal to the taste and sympathy of all mankind.

The author is the first writer to enshrine our national heroes, Abraham Lincoln and Jefferson Davis, in the legendary lore of our country; to portray them free from the incrustations and scars of politics; to speak of them as they were—tender and true; to reach their inner lives, showing their lofty and ideal aspirations. He strips from them the cerements in which superficial writers and the cold historian have hidden their personality. He speaks of Lincoln as the poet and man, and of Davis in his youth, as the magnificent and chivalrous soul he was. So, too, he portrays the renowned Sac Chieftain, Black Hawk, in colors as vivid as those Cooper would have used.

"The daring venture of introducing these men in a romance has been crowned with success."—The Philadelphia Press

"Told with captivating power."—Rt. Rev. WILLIAM E. MCLAREN, Bishop of Chicago.

"A Thanatopsis in Prose."—Boston Post.

"Chaste, pure, elegant."—New York Times.

"Of surpassing interest."—Philadelphia Inquirer.
